President's Message:

I would like to thank Pat O'Connor and Brian O'Brien, both from The Ohio State University, for presenting on their work on segregation of duties within their PeopleSoft environment. The chapter is very lucky to have members who work at the university as part of our local chapter and have their willingness to share their experience and knowledge with us.

Last month, I sent out an email to you asking for volunteers to serve as an Officer or on the Board of Directors. We received more responses than I had anticipated. This is a good sign. We still have slots open to serve. If you are interested please contact me, mckitjr@nationwide.com, Jim D'Innocenzo, dinnocenzo.4@osu.edu.

The location and dates have been set for the CISA and CISM review classes. Please visit http://isaca-centralohio.org/review_classes.htm for more detailed information.

CISA and CISM Scoring Change

The CISA and CISM certification boards recently approved changing the way exams are scored. To alleviate confusion found with the previous scoring method and to provide greater clarity, ISACA will use a 200-800 point scale with a passing point of 450 beginning with the June 2007 exams. Using a 200-800 scale will increase the range of scores and eliminate the perception that the score is a percentage. This scoring method is used by several testing organizations, including the well respected SAT and GRE exams.
